Thank You Rosekind's 'Attention Intention!' CD Release, Philadelphia, PA, June 1st, 2011— Philadelphia-based group Thank You Rosekind will release their second album of dreamy electro-pop, 'Attention Intention!' this June. With this downloadable album, TYR expands upon their sentiments of gratitude with motivational lyrics and celebratory dance beats.

Thank You Rosekind consists of artists and musicians Michael G. Bauer and Joel Chartkoff. TYR began in 2009 as Bauer's home recording project, a process which has consistently taken the form of lush vocals and atmospheric keyboards and saxophones with digital drum machine accompaniment. In 2010, Rosekind released its self-titled debut album, which included well received tracks such as "Tall Cup of Juice" -- a song which bears Bauer's idiosyncratic flute-like keyboards and lyrics consisting of playful quips and romantic yearning. The album is available for download at thankyourosekind.com/download. Chartkoff joined TYR soon after the 2010 self-titled release, and most recently contributed in the way of songwriting and vocals which are featured consistently throughout 'Attention Intention!'

In celebration of their release of 'Attention Intention!' Thank You Rosekind will tour the east coast and several cities in the mid-west from June 16th through June 26th with Little Band of Sailors (aka artist and musician Rachel Mason).
